

There's so much more to explore!

▲ Leon Steves/Big Bay Preserve, south end of Division Road, Queensbury — This 68-acre preserve, above the Hudson River's Big Bay, has 2.4 miles of trails through woodlands and wetlands and connects by bridge to the Hudson Pointe Nature Preserve, managed by Queensbury Parks & Recreation.

▲ VanDusen Preserve, northwest side of West Mountain Road, 0.3 miles north of the intersection with Aviation Road — This 51-acre preserve features a 2-mile-long trail going up and around a wildlife haven of wooded glades.

▲ Sullivan Preserve, Sullivan Road, Queensbury, just off of Glen Lake Road, across from the Dockside Restaurant — This preserve consists of more than 70 acres and 2 1/2 miles of neighborhood-preserved trails and names!

Support for Queensbury trails

Queensbury Land Conservancy could use your support.

Please consider:

- a monetary donation
 - donating land
 - volunteering

For more information about making a donation, please call 518-415-7633.

Use your smartphone's camera and donate with PayPal

Queensbury Land Conservancy was created by local residents who share a commitment to preserving and enhancing the natural and recreational resources of the area for the benefit of current residents and future generations. Our mission is to work with all sectors of the community to conserve land and resources in a manner that is consistent with responsible development.

Queensbury Land Conservancy, Inc.

169 Haviland Road
Queensbury NY 12804
518-415-7633
qlcnytrails@gmail.com
qlcny.org

facebook.com/QLCNY

Queensbury Land Conservancy, Inc. is a local, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to preserving the natural beauty of Queensbury by conserving valuable natural and cultural resources.

Clendon Brook Preserve

This parcel was donated to the Conservancy by the Roland Akins family in 2006.

 QLC Nature Trail
Distance: 1 mile roundtrip
Uses:

 Preserve boundary
Area: 11 acres

 Bridge

THIS TRAIL IS CLOSED IN WINTER.

Leashed dogs are welcome.
Please clean up after your pets.

